Larval Masks EXPLORATIONS - Workshop Series

Don't miss a workshop that will help you give any character in any style of theatre more depth and resonance!

Led by Robin Patterson and Terry Judd, this workshop will focus on developing the actor/creator's ability to clarify actions and simplify thoughts, and to develop an internal monologue for a character and a non-verbal storyline for a group.

Through learning innovative mask and physical theatre techniques, performers will be challenged and have fun! Participants will also have the opportunity to make their own larval masks.

Prices:

Regular: $300 (including $10 for materials)

About the Instructors:

Robin Patterson and Terry Judd are actors, writers, and directors of image-based theatre as well as founding members of Theatre Beyond Words, an international touring ensemble that specializes in physical theatre and mask work ranging from larval, neutral, character, commedia dell'arte and clown. They were part of the team that created the POTATO PEOPLE, and their work has been seen on Sesame Street, The Elephant Show, and the TVO documentary series Yellow Brick Roads. Currently mentoring a group of emerging artists in larval mask and producing their new show POTATO PEOPLE: TheNextGeneration – TALES FROM THE GARDEN, Terry and Robin teach physical theatre at Brock University, St. Catharines and Niagara University, Niagara Falls, NY.

About Odyssey Theatre:

Odyssey is Ottawa's premiere professional masked theatre company. Since 1986, we have entertained audiences in Strathcona Park with our award-winning productions featuring masks, clown, puppetry, fast-paced comedy, clever choreography and original music.

Larval masks originate from Basel, Switzerland in the 1960s. They are large, simplified masks that have only one or two major features and rather small eyes.
